NEW ROADWAY ASSURED.

Will Open Up Direct Route from Washington to Valley of Virginia.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Leesburg, Va., March 22.—Residents of this city and Washington, at a good roads meeting held here, were told that the proposed model highway between this city and Washington was assured. The new roadway, which will be built for the use of automobbles and other vehicles, will take the place of the present Georgetown-Leesburg Turnpike. Money enough has been provided by Virginia, the county and private subscriptions to build the pike from Langley to Chain Bridge, The new road, it was explained, will open up a new direct route from Washington to the Valley of Virginia. Will Open Up Direct Route from Wash-

White Man Taken to Lynchburg Hospital in Serious Condition.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., March 29.—L. R.
Simmons, a white man, is at the Hygela Hospital here suffering from injuries received by falling from a westbound Norfolk and Western passenger train ten miles west of Lynchburg. Simmons refuses to tell more about himself than his name, declining to talk about himself or his people.

While he is painfully hurt, it is not thought his injuries are serious.

RESOLUTIONS

At a meeting of the Blackstone W. C. T U., March 15, 1911, representing a membership of 120, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the action of the Anti-Saloon League in adopting the report of the legislative committee, especially that portion of it which referred to the "wet" newspapers of the State, has been criticized by said papers, and the chairman of the committee, Rev. Dr. James Cannon, denounced; therefore, resolved.

Chairman of the committee, Rev. Dr.
James Cannon, denounced; therefore,
resolved.

1st. That we, as a union, most heartily and unreservedly indorse the action of the convention.

2d. That we protest against the unmerited and slanderous abuse which has been heaped upon Dr. Cannon personally by The Times-Dispatch of February 25 and by some other "wet" newspapers. Believing him to be the wisest and safest leader in the temperance cause in our State, and knowing him to be one of the most consecrated of men, we bid him Godspeed.

3d. That we arge our temperance workers to banish from their homes the "wet" newspapers, because they belittle the temperance workers, damage the cause and exert a baleful influence, not only upon our boys and girls, but upon the whole community, thus hindering our temperance work.

4th. That we pledge our support to our brothers, who are in the thick of the fight for State-wide prohibition, and pray God to hasten the day when "Old Virginia" shall be free from the curse of strong drink.
